For Immediate Release

Growth Continues for The Interface Financial Group

David Banfield, President of The Interface Financial Group, reports from their Irvine, CA headquarters that demand for the IFG service has resulted in expansion of their network, with new offices in New Zealand, Singapore, the United Kingdom, and the United States.

Irvine, CA (March 3, 2010) – The Interface Financial Group enters their 38th years of continuous service to the small business community with the announcement of new locations. David Banfield President of Interface, announced that in response to the demand in the marketplace, Interface has established new offices in the last 30 days in Ohio and on the International scene in Singapore, New Zealand, and the United Kingdom.

The New Zealand market for Interface continues to grow at a good pace with two new offices opening so far in 2010. One is Auckland based, and the second is in Nelson. In Singapore two additional offices opened to service the local demand of the growing small business economy, and Interface opens its first office in the United Kingdom.

Interface reports that it is seeing growing demand for their unique Invoice Discounting service not only in their 'home' marketplace of the U.S., but also in other area where they operate such as Canada, New Zealand, Australia, Singapore, and now the United Kingdom.

"Market conditions for small business entrepreneurs seem to be consistent throughout our network area," reports Banfield. "Banks, historically the provider of working capital for business, continue to be reluctant to re-enter the small business marketplace." This action tends to create excellent opportunities for Interface and their growing group of franchisees. Banfield predicts that with no immediate end in sight, as far as the 'credit crunch' is concerned, their organization will continue to grow into 2010.
